

Establishing your identity

Documents you need for a:

- Driver's licence
- Identification card

MANITOBA
PUBLIC INSURANCE

You will be asked to show documents that prove your identity when you apply for a Manitoba driver's licence or identification card for the first time, or when you move to Manitoba from another jurisdiction.

How to prove your identity

Verifying identity before a driver's licence or identification card is issued helps protect all Manitobans from identity theft. It also ensures that Manitoba driver's licences or identification cards are issued only to those who are in Canada legally, whether as citizens, permanent residents or visitors. This requirement under Manitoba law is aligned with North American standards.

To prove your identity, you will need supporting documents that establish these key elements:

- birth date
- legal name*
- photograph
- Manitoba residency and permanent address
- entitlement to be in Canada

If your current legal name is different from the name on the proof of legal name document you provide, or if your driver's licence does not show your current legal name (in full), you will also need to present one or more documents to show the link between those names. These "linking" documents could include:*

- a marriage certificate issued by a vital statistics agency (as applicable)
- a certificate of resumption of surname or a certificate of election of surname
- a change of name certificate
- a valid Canadian passport

Two supporting documents are required to prove that you reside in Manitoba. Any supporting address document must be dated within 90 days of the date of application. If rural customers do not have two supporting documents containing their physical address, the second document can contain their mailing address.*

Card options

Driver's licence

A Manitoba driver's licence costs $20, plus your annual driver's licence premium, which is based on your driving record. It is valid for up to five years.

Identification card

If you don't drive but you need legal identification that includes a photograph, an identification card may be the right choice.

A Manitoba Identification Card is a voluntary, government-issued, secure photo identification card you can use to prove your identity, age and Manitoba residency. It costs $20 and is valid for five years.

You cannot hold both a driver's licence and an identification card. For more information, see the Manitoba Identification Card brochure at mpi.mb.ca.

Acceptable documents

A wide range of acceptable documents can be used to satisfy the required identity elements. Each document must be from an authority such as a federal government, federal agency or province.

For a list of documents that may be used to establish your identity, as well as the identify elements that each supports, please see the insert or use the Proving My Identity tool at mpi.mb.ca.

The documents must be valid* originals – not photocopies. Electronic scans of these documents will be retained on file in a secure database, in keeping with Canadian standards.

If you don't have acceptable documents with your photograph or address, in exceptional cases MPI may accept a completed Guarantor Declaration form instead.

These cards can be accepted for identity purposes when expired: Permanent Resident Cards, out-of-province driving permits issued by a Canadian province or territory, Certificate of Indian Status and Secure Certificate of Indian Status.*

Use of a guarantor

If you are unable to produce the documents required to prove your photograph or Manitoba residency/permanent address, in exceptional cases Manitoba Public Insurance may accept that a guarantor attest to these elements on your behalf.

The guarantor will be required to fill out and sign a Guarantor Declaration form, available at mpi.mb.ca or by visiting any Autopac agent or Manitoba Public Insurance Service Centre.

The Guarantor Declaration form may also be used as a second supporting document for Manitoba residency if you only have one acceptable document with your address on it*.

Please be aware the guarantor must:

- be a Canadian citizen who resides in Canada
- have known you for at least two years
- be a member of an eligible profession from the list set out in the Guarantor Declaration form

The 90-day rule for proving Manitoba residency does not apply if you are using a Guarantor Declaration form, as the form has no expiry date.*

Protecting your personal health information

You can choose to use your Manitoba Health card as proof of residency. If you're under 18 years of age, your parent or legal guardian's Manitoba Health card can be used as proof of your Manitoba residency provided you are listed on the back of the card as a dependant. In some instances the Manitoba Health card will contain personal information of another individual. In both instances, the Autopac agent or MPI customer service representative is required to:

- photocopy the entire Manitoba Health card
- return the original to you
- electronically scan and transmit the photocopy through a secure encrypted connection to Manitoba Public Insurance, where personal information that does not belong to you will be blacked out before the information is stored
- return the photocopy to you

The same process will be followed for other documents that contain third-party personal information.

Protecting your personal privacy

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, The Personal Health Information Act and The Drivers and Vehicles Act set the rules for how Manitoba Public Insurance and Autopac agents may collect, use, share and must safeguard your personal information. For more information, see the Protecting Your Privacy page at mpi.mb.ca.
